Challenges faced prior to deployment of Project

- Minimal Financial Inclusion : No linkage of residents with financial services and no service delivery was available near door step of residents of the State
- Minimal Women Empowerment : Being a patriarchic society, eldest male head of the family. Lady of the house was economically dependent on male members of the house.
- No Referral Database : No single referral repository of all residents in the state.
- Minimal Point of Service : Very few point of service in the vicinity of the resident. Hence more money and time of residents were wasted for availing the services.
- Leakage in benefit transfer in Welfare schemes
- Planning and Roll out of new Welfare Schemes used to take more time
- High operational cost involved in benefit transfer of welfare schemes – Rs. 25/- per beneficiary per month for disbursing benefits through money order
